Today is the Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE LORD OF LIFE. At this bountiful time of year, our Sunday readings teem with life and abundance. Both the first reading, from the book of Wisdom, and the Gospel passage from Mark assure us that God did not make death or even will us to be ill. Illness and death entered the world through the presence of evil, the Wisdom author tells us. Mark's stories of Jesus healing a hemorrhaging woman and resuscitating a dead little girl make it clear that Jesus is from God. As the Son of God he does not will that anyone suffer illness or death. In the face of such power, the second reading, from Paul's Second Letter to the Corinthians, provides a stark contrast. Jesus, who could raise the dead to new life, "though he was rich, for your sake he became poor" (2 Corinthians 8:9). Our gift of new life from Christ demands our response in charity.

We congratulate our 2015 High School & College Graduates listed in the Special Insert to this Bulletin. If you were unable to attend Graduate Recognition Sunday, please see the basket in the Narthex to receive a small token from the Parish as you begin your new journey. Remember that you will always have a spiritual home here. God Bless and Good Luck!

Vacation Time is Here!

And we wish all those who are going on holidays a very safe and happy journey. The Parable of the Vacationing Christians comes to mind this time of year, and we would like to share its message with you.

Now it came to pass as Summer drew nigh that Mr. Church Member lifted up his eyes unto the hills and said; "Lo, the hot days come and are even now at hand. Come, let us go unto the beach, where cool breezes and cool water refresh us."

"Thou speakest wisely," replied Mrs. Church Member. "Yet four things we must do before we go." "Three things I can think of," responded Mr. Church Member. "We must arrange for our flowers to be cared for, our pets to be fed, and our mail to be brought in, but the fourth eludes me."

The fourth is like unto the first three, yet more important than all," Mrs. Church Member replied. "Thou shalt dig into thy purse and pay thy church tithes and offerings that the good name of the church shalt be preserved, and that it may be well with thee. For verily I say unto thee, thou hast more money now than thou wilt when thou dost return."

And it came to pass that Mr. Church Member paid his tithes for the Summer, and the Pastor rejoiced greatly, saying, "Of a truth, there are those who care for the Lord's work." And it was so.

Attention: Vacationing Parishioners ~ For your convenience, we have a box of previous week's Bulletins so you can see what you missed while away from your Parish. The box of Previous Bulletins can be found in the lobby. Please feel free to take one.

HOLY MASS ETIQUETTE REMINDERS:

Our behavior in church has an effect on others. In charity, please be sensitive to each other and provide a good example. PLEASE be on time for the celebration of Holy Mass. PLEASE stay until Holy Mass has ended, i.e. when the priest celebrant processes from church. PLEASE dress appropriately and modestly - Our Lord deserves your respect. PLEASE enter and exit the church quietly before and after Holy Mass so people can pray in peace.

Thank You for Your Cooperation.!

The Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflecting on God's Word

These two stories are quite touching, perhaps because they involve so much touching—forbidden touching, as a matter of fact. The father starts it off by falling at Jesus' feet and begging Jesus to help his dying daughter: "Come lay your hands on her that she may get well and live" (Mark 5:23). Only touching her will do. Then as Jesus is passing through the crowd, a woman suddenly appears on the scene, reaching out to Jesus and saying to herself: "If I but touch his clothes, I shall be cured" (5:28). Jesus knows immediately that he's been touched: "Who has touched my clothes?" he asks (5:30). And the disciples wryly observe that the crowd is . . . well, crowding him . . . so how can you ask "Who touched me?" It is important to remember that because the woman was bleeding, a condition that made her "unclean" according to the law of Moses, her touch would have made Jesus unclean. However, her touching Jesus has the opposite effect: the bleeding stops and she is made clean once again. When word comes that the little girl is dead, Jesus calls on the father to set aside fear and put on faith. Arriving at the house, Jesus goes in and takes the child by the hand and says, "Little girl, I say to you, arise!" (Mark 5:41). Sixteen times in Mark's Gospel Jesus touches or takes someone by the hand. She does arise and he tells them to bring her some food. Again, touching her would have made Jesus unclean, but instead his touch cleanses her of death's hold. Two desperate people—a dying girl and a bleeding woman. Jesus touches them and they both touch him—the woman through her own faith, the little girl through the faith of her father. It seems that healing depends on a flow between healer and the one being healed. The great news is that God allows a proxy. ~ James A. Wallace, C.Ss.R.

Living God's Word

Today we might pray for those who are in need of the healing touch of Jesus, and for those who care for them and suffer with them.
