Today is the Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

THE COSTS OF DISCIPLESHIP. Today's responsorial psalm, Psalm 40, is more familiar to us with the refrain "Here am I, Lord." This "Here am I" is Jeremiah's great prophetic response to God's call. But today's story of Jeremiah and the refrain "Lord, come to my aid!" remind us that there are always two sides to following the call of God. The author of the Letter to the Hebrews knew this, too. He reminded his readers that even weighted down with burdens and sins, we can still persevere by keeping our eyes fixed on Jesus, who himself knew the shame and pain of the cross, but saw beyond it to the joy of sitting at the right of the throne of God. Jesus himself gave the disciples a "sneak preview" of a baptism that would not be as wondrous as the one in the Jordan that inaugurated his ministry, but would be one of fire and anguish. Today's words from scripture may not be terribly soothing, but in their honesty and strength we can acknowledge the difficulties of daily

Vacation Time is Here!

And we wish all those who are going on holidays a very safe and happy journey. The Parable of the Vacationing Christians comes to mind this time of year, and we would like to share its message with you.

Now it came to pass as Summer drew nigh that Mr. Church Member lifted up his eyes unto the hills and said; "Lo, the hot days come and are even now at hand. Come, let us go unto the beach, where cool breezes and cool water refresh us."

"Thou speakest wisely," replied Mrs. Church Member. "Yet four things we must do before we go." "Three things I can think of," responded Mr. Church Member. "We must arrange for our flowers to be cared for, our pets to be fed, and our mail to be brought in, but the fourth eludes me."

The fourth is like unto the first three, yet more important than all," Mrs. Church Member replied. "Thou shalt dig into thy purse and pay thy church tithes and offerings that the good name of the church shalt be preserved, and that it may be well with thee. For verily I say unto thee, thou hast more money now than thou wilt when thou dost return."

And it came to pass that Mr. Church Member paid his tithes for the Summer, and the Pastor rejoiced greatly, saying, "Of a truth, there are those who care for the Lord's work." And it was so.

The Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflecting on God's Word

By now just about all of summer has been unwrapped and spent. As the season drains away and summer's light dims, so too grows the realization that the busy work of life must soon be taken up in earnest once more. Once more the realization returns that life calls us seriously to particular autumn cares. No matter how fearful or challenging, each of us must follow that inner voice or else sense that life will have become less.

Such was the story of Jeremiah, who found himself prophet to the Hebrew people. He sensed an inner call to speak God's word against the nation's political alliances and against the king's penchant to trust in military machines. As a result Jeremiah found himself tossed into a well. Yet he remained committed.

It is also the story of Jesus, who came with truth as a walking stick and the kingdom as seeds of life to be scattered and sown. He also knew full well that few would walk where he would walk or choose to feed on what he would sow. Yet he would not back away from what he was about.

Such a willingness to stretch ourselves into the unknown is part of that mysterious list of things that make us human. At such times we walk in the shadow of Jesus as he leads us into new ways of being human. Seldom, if ever, is it without struggle or even pain, yet it is then that we begin to gain a fuller sense of who we truly are, and it is then that through us God brings the world to something new. ~ Rev. Joseph J. Juknialis

Living God's Word

Each of us must choose to step into some unknown, guided by our God-given vision of what our lives must be about, a vision to which others are often blind.
At these moments one can feel both most alone and most alive.
