The Fourth Sunday of Lent

March 6, 2016

Today is the Fourth Sunday of Lent

A SUNDAY FOR REJOICING. Today's Gospel story of the prodigal son is a favorite of many. We can identify with all the major figures and their crisscross of emotions. The father's initial grief over his young son's avarice is turned to relief at his return. The son's grief over his loss of fortune, family, and friends is turned to delirious joy at the sight of his father. We understand the eldest son's bewilderment over his father's generosity. For the older son, virtue seems not to be its own reward. For all his honorable toil and loyalty, there seems to be no celebration. The father, however, is prodigal in his forgiveness and mercy. He expects the same generosity from his older son. He wants all to rejoice when the lost one is found. This is a Sunday for rejoicing. It's time to pause, consider, and encourage one another. We are the prodigal children heading home. We are the elder siblings waiting with the eager Father, who scans the horizon. In Christ Jesus we are reconciled to the Father and one another. In his death and resurrection we have passed over. We are a new creation. In this we rejoice.

A Heartfelt Thanks from Father Andrew's Family

Words cannot begin to express how grateful we are for all the love and support you gave our brother and us. What a unique group of people you are! Whenever I came up, it was obvious how much you loved him. He was so happy to be with you and to finally be able to build the new beautiful church. We are looking forward to attending the Dedication and being with you for such a joyous event. From a grateful family ~ Sincerely, Carol & Mary

The Parish Staff would like to extend their thanks to the parishioners as well for the many prayers, hugs, emails, Facebook posts, cards, food, lunches and shoulders to lean on during this most difficult time of loss and transition after Father Andrew's passing. It meant a lot to each and every one of us. Thank you for caring and for your love. Now, let's all continue to pull together to finish what Father started and dreamed of for our faith community here at Our Lady of the Lake! God Bless you!

FOR THOSE UNABLE TO ATTEND FATHER ANDREW'S MASS OF CHRISTIAN BURIAL:

QR code or a link for those to type in the URL if they don't have a smartphone or tablet.

We also hope to put a link on the Parish's website to view the video of the Mass. Many thanks to parishioner, Nancy Williamson, for her excellent technical expertise, and to David Roof with Acoustical Design Associates for the video.

Flowers for the Altar

Flowers on the altar this weekend were provided by Bruce & Barbara Thompson in loving memory of their mothers, Inez F. Thompson and Muriel Jancovic; and, by Marty King, in loving memory of her husband, Patrick King, on the 3rd Anniversary of his passing.

Laetare Sunday is the popular name for the Fourth Sunday in Lent. Laetare means "Rejoice" in Latin, and because it is the midpoint of Lent Laetare Sunday has traditionally been viewed as a day of celebration, on which the austerity of Lent is briefly lessened. The purple vestments and altar cloths of Lent are set aside, and rose ones are used instead. Flowers, which are normally forbidden during Lent, may be placed on the altar.

Instead of sponsoring Lilies for the Altar this year, we are asking parishioners to memorialize the remaining items need to landscape our new church. See Insert for more details. A "Living Memorial" Sheet will be printed after Easter. Many thanks for your consideration and help!

THE FOURTH SUNDAY OF LENT

Reflecting on God's Word

When Israel packed its few bags and went rushing out of Egypt, God's chosen people began a journey into being a new creation, from being a nation of slaves to being a nation of free men and women, a people under the heel of Egypt to one joined to God by the covenant, a community that ate manna (which literally means "What is it?") to one that ate the produce of the promised land. This journey took forty years and it wasn't easy.

When the prodigal son finally "came to his senses" and realized he would be better off back home as a hired worker than stealing slop from the pigs, he began a journey from being lost to being found, from being dead to being alive. This journey did not take forty years, but how do you measure in clock time a journey that transforms the heart? This journey wasn't easy either.

The path to being a new creation can take forty years, forty days, forty minutes, or forty seconds. Sometimes it involves an outer journey; it is always an inner one. It is difficult ~ dying to self always is. What matters is that we make it. Because the end result is the radiance of a people, or a son or daughter, who has finally arrived where they belong, at a party where the Father has an arm around them and the older brother who brought this about through his saving death is standing at the Father's side, with the Spirit hovering above them all.

~ James A. Wallace, c.ss.r.

Living God's Word

We pray that whatever form our journey takes, we will persevere in becoming, individually and communally, a new creation. We ask the Father to send forth the Holy Spirit upon us so that we will be recreated as this same Spirit continues to renew the face of the earth.
