The Fifth Sunday of Easter

April 24, 2016

Today is the Fifth Sunday of Easter

TRUE CHRISTIAN COMMUNITY. Can you imagine a world such as the one put before us in today's scripture readings? Communities of believers everywhere would support and encourage one another and be identified as Christians by the way they love each other. It would be a world with no tears, no death and mourning, no crying out in pain. "Behold, I make all things new," we hear the Son of God say in the second reading from the book of Revelation (21:5). Is this world of John's vision only imaginary? Are these faithful followers for whom Jesus prayed only a savior's dream? Today they are put before us as a worthy goal. How much closer can we come to this vision of a true Christian community in our lives today?

OUR LADY OF THE LAKE HAS A NEW PASTOR!
Very Rev. Dennis B. Willey, VF

"Today, at the dedication of their new church, Bishop Robert Guglielmonne announced my assignment as Pastor of Our Lady of the Lake Catholic Church in Chapin, SC. I will succeed the former pastor of 22 years - Fr. Andrew J. Vollkommer - who died on 27 January and who was instrumental in guiding the parish through the construction of their new church. I am humbled to succeed my brother priest and friend and ask for prayers that I may be a worthy shepherd for this vibrant faith community." (Taken in part from Sacred Heart Church's Website. Father Willey's first weekend to celebrate Masses at Our Lady of the Lake will be May 13-14.)

CONGRATULATIONS TO 34 of our young parishioners who were blessed to have the Holy Sacrament of Confirmation conferred upon them this past Thursday, April 21, 2016, at 7 p.m., by The Most Rev. Robert E. Guglielmonne, Bishop of the Diocese of Charleston. Please continue to keep them in your prayers as this is NOT the end, but only the beginning of their Spiritual Journey. The Fifth Sunday of Easter

Reflecting on God's Word

A while ago the Lysol® brand of cleaning products was promoting a new toilet brush, one that has the liquid cleanser and disinfectant stored inside the handle. Television became its midwife, promoting it as the new generation of toilet bowl cleaners. The ad concluded with a series of housewife testimonials, the final one of which attested, “It has changed my life!” It was but another appeal to our hidden longing that our lives be made new. Or consider the abundance of television makeover programs, even a surgical makeover ~ the “extreme” makeover. Each of us in some way longs to be made new, sometimes vicariously and sometimes personally.

One of the paradoxes of life is that the more we seek ourselves, the more we lose ourselves; and the more we are willing to lose ourselves, the more we find ourselves. It is, of course, only another way of speaking about love. It seems to be a simple rule of thumb. If your life is in chaos or disarray, if you find yourself unsettled and discombobulated, then forget about your own life and begin to focus on the lives of others. It is how love works, if indeed love does any work at all. It is love that makes us new. It is the ultimate makeover, simply because God is love.

Weapons and war will never create peace; only compassion will, and justice, and heartfelt care for all of humanity. Punishment and the inhumane conditions of prison life will never remake the soul of one who is incarcerated, only hope for a future and a nurturing of the human spirit will. More liturgical regulations and prescriptions will never bring deepening faith life to our eucharistic assemblies; only love for one another will, and the healing we so desperately need. ~ Rev. Joseph J. Juknialis

Living God's Word

*All of our efforts to remake life can only be meager strivings.
In the end it is God who makes all things new, and we are but sparks of God's creation who seek to live in harmony with the Spirit set free by Jesus who is Lord.*
